BANDAROSSA. A "GOOD SIGN"

Originally the "banda rossa" or Red Band was a mark that the founder, Giuliano Bortolomiol, put only on bottles containing the best extra dry of the year. These were the bottles that were kept for real friends, those who shared his passion for the land, tradition and good wine. Since forty years the special Prosecco di Valdobbiadene that Giuliano marked has had its own label and represents the quality of the best wines from the Bortolomiol winery.

BANDAROSSA. A "GOOD SIGN"

"The bouquet is rich and enormously pleasurable. The fragrance is of a variety of mature fruit: an aroma of powdery yellow apple and pear stand out, while there are also gentle shades of citrus sweet, fine flowery hints. The creamily sparkling palette doesn't disappoint as it's well moulded into the sugar residue. Wonderful as an aperitif, this wine is intriguing with savoury dishes delicately combined with fruit, such as trout marinated with Melissa grass accompanied by cooked must and sour cream."

BANDAROSSA. A "GOOD SIGN"

Bandarossa Special Edition originates from the Collagù hill, a unique vineyard tended by the Bortolomiol family and this year is enhanced with the indication " Vigna", in accordance with strict DOCG protocol. The grapes undergo a longer vinification process, resting on the lees for more than three months, after which time the wine remains in the bottle in our cellar at controlled temperature for a further four months before being ready for tasting.

BANDAROSSA GRAPPA RISERVA

Bandarossa Grappa Riserva Barrique is the perfect synthesis of innovation, quality and passion. Its secret lies in the careful blending of Grappa produced from a vacuum distillation still with Grappa slowly distilled in a copper alembic still heated using a bain-marie, a process which preserves its fragrance and produces a soft Grappa. After the pomace has been distilled the Grappa is kept for at least 18 months in small cherry or oak barrels where it slowly ages taking on its full colour, fragrance and flavour. During this time it becomes soft and rounded in taste making it more gentle and complete while the fragrance slowly turns into a complex and harmonious bouquet.

Superiore di Cartizze Valdobbiadene DOCG Dry Millesimato

There is a particularly precious hillside area in Valdobbiadene called Cartizze. It is a place of breathtaking beauty, its allure ancient and timeless. The Cartizze hill is a genuine Grand Cru. It is said that in the rive of these few hilly hectares the best grapes are grown. For its unique exposure to the sun and the mineral-rich soil, here the vines produce more rounded berries, swollen with juice and with a sugary taste that makes them of superior quality. These grapes are only ever harvested by hand.

Filanda Rosé Brut Millesimato Pinot Nero

Great sparkling wine maker that he was, Giuliano Bortolomiol made his first rosé in the early 1970s. Today his daughters Maria Elena, Elvira, Luisa and Giuliana together with their mother Ottavia present a sparkling rosé, the Filanda Rosé.

They have decided to dedicate this wine to the women who worked in the Valdobbiadene silk mills, women who with their hard work contributed so greatly to the development of the area. A homage from women to women, proudly pink.

This wine is made using Pinot Nero grapes from the Oltrepò Pavese area in north west Italy. After careful maturation the wine develops a lovely pink colour, delicate while intense and assertive. The bouquet has the liveliness of wide, variegated fruity sensations counterbalanced by the finesse and complexity of its almost meaty floral notes, spiced with pepper and cinnamon.

Filanda Rosè

"Dedicated to all women who worked in the silk mill."

Famiglia Bortolomiol

Riserva del Governatore Extra Brut Millesimato

A long Charnat made from Pinot Noir and Chardonnay grapes which underlines Bortolomiol's enthusiasm to take sparkling wine making in new directions. On the occasion of the visit of an illustrious guest, a few friends came to Giuliano asking for a unique, refined and very dry sparkling wine.

For the talented wine maker this was the moment to present a cuvée that he'd been working on in order to produce an Extra Brut. And so the Riserva del Governatore sparkling wine was born. It was a success.

BOX COUTURE COLLECTION

The new bottles find their inspiration in haute couture, a sector of the fashion industry that has made Italy famous the whole world over. The absolute black combines with small hints of colour that emerge as if out of nowhere, an imaginary cotton thread that twists and curls to create abstract patterns bringing to mind the works of the American artist Paul Jackson Pollock, considered to be one of the leading exponents of abstract expressionism.

All of Bortolomiol's experience in the sparkling wine field was used to accomplish this additional challenge: continuing the exploits of Giuliano Bortolomiol as a skilled sparkling-wine maker and great experimenter, always looking for new ways forward in the name of high quality. This Grande Cuvée is dedicated to him, the first one to make a Prosecco Brut, a Rive which is exclusively produced with grapes from the San Pietro di Barbozza vineyard, Extra Brut and Millesimato in order to present the particular characteristics of each vintage in the best possible way. These characteristics inspired the colours of the packaging: the dark brown of the earth and the light blue of the sky.

Grande Cuvée del Fondatore

The flowery bouquet demonstrate an austere, not aggressive character, a prelude to the dry, vibrant and powerful flavour.

Here you can be daring with accompanying dishes: apart from being a classic accompaniment to sea food, the good structure of this wine means it is perfect with white fish such as turbot, and white meats such as delicately prepared suckling pig.

The unique 70th Anniversary collection continues with the 70th Anniversary Rive di Col San Martino Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore D.O.C.G., a sparkling wine in a numbered limited edition, 8,000 bottles, which this year presents itself with a silver foil label. The grapes were harvested during the 2022 and comes from a single vineyard located on a steep slope in the woodland of the Denomination, which enjoys perfect exposure to the sun. The Rive di Col San Martino give life to this extra brut, millesimo 2022, following lengthy ageing on the lees, which brings out the extreme characteristics of a land that is difficult to cultivate, where everything is done "by hand". The bottle has a hang tag that tells the story of the wine, and is wrapped in tissue with a silver-coloured logo and housed inside a gift box to complete the packaging.

70th Anniversary

Because of its complexity and structure this sparkling wine pairs well with pasta dishes with white meat sauces, risottos with seasonal vegetables or with more important dishes such as baked sea bass or river trout. It is also an excellent accompaniment to savoury puff pastry and can be enjoyed perfectly on its own as an aperitif or for a toast on very important occasions.

We've been using organic wine-growing techniques for many years, converting our family vineyards, located in the heart of Valdobbiadene and within the Parco della Filandetta, to meet EU standards for organic wine growing. We firmly believe in the principles of sustainability and total respect for the environment.

We chose the Brut because of its more international appeal, Millesimato so as to highlight the characteristics of each and every harvest in keeping with the Ius Naturae, or "natural law", upon which every human law is based.

Audax Zero.3
Valdobbiadene
Prosecco Superiore
DOCG Extra Brut
Millesimato

Audax Zero.3 completes the Traditional collection: with its bold character and a sugar level very close to zero, it fully reflects today's consumer trends and at the same time the vision and pioneering spirit of Giuliano Bortolomiol, who in the 1960s was the first to produce a brut version of the Valdobbiadene prosecco (today the Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore DOCG).

This sparkling wine encapsulates the entire sparkling wine experience of the Bortolomiol winery. The Traditional collection encompasses the most classical expressions of the Prosecco Superiore, available in all the different versions: extra brut, brut, extra dry, dry and demi sec.

Prior Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore DOCG Brut Millesimato

This is the number one sparkling wine from the Bortolomiol traditional line. The Roman numeral on the bottle and the name Prior bear testament to the fact that Giuliano Bortolomiol had the intuition to create a brut Prosecco at a time when it was only ever an extra dry. Prior symbolises Giuliano's pioneering spirit and his belief in Prosecco di Valdobbiadene (now Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore D.O.C.G.) and in the Martinotti Charmat sparkling wine-making method with fermentation in an autoclave, also known as the Italian Method.

Senior Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore DOCG Extra Dry Millesimato

The Senior is the Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore Docg par excellence. Its Latin name is as clear to everyone around the world as the name Prosecco. For some and for a long time the sparkling Prosecco couldn't be anything more than extra dry for its natural sweetness and sugar residue. Now that Bortolomiol have different versions of Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore Docg in their traditional line, the number "II" on the bottle signifies that this is the second on the scale between the driest and softest. It's called Senior because it was the first.

Its finely balanced sugar residue and embracing fragrances give this wine softness and great adaptability. This is a wine for all occasions, from a drink at the bar with friends to an aperitif. But it is in the kitchen that it really shines.

Maior Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore DOCG Dry Millesimato

The Traditional collection ranges in the most classic expressions of Prosecco Superiore, interpreting the different versions. Il Segreto di Giuliano Rosso Toscana IGT

From a charming old vineyard in Montalcino comes Il Segreto di Giuliano, by the winemaker Roberto Cipresso; the point of departure on a long adventure by the Bortolomiol family.

When the impassioned wine lover and indefatigable researcher Giuliano Bortolomiol gazed out across the vineyards of Tuscany on his many travels, he dreamed of making red wine in these captivating surroundings so full of history and culture. Giuliano's secret, pure Sangiovese aged for 12 months in French oak barriques is a man's dream and a tribute from his daughters to a life full of emotions and fond memories.

WOODEN BOX SEGRETO DI GIULIANO

"This intense ruby red wine exhibits olfactory notes of red fruits, especially cherry and black cherry, together with balsamic expressions similar to mint and chocolate, veering towards peaty notes and sensations of tobacco. On the palate the fruity expressions return immediately, in keeping with the olfactory profile; in the centre of the mouth the wine is warm and full, expressing a mineral vibration which, together with a fragrance of sweet tannins, guarantees excellent persistence."

It is the realisation of the dream of Giuliano Bortolomiol who without any unrealistic expectations but with concrete steps founded the winery today run by his four daughters. The historical testimonies spread through the pages of this book tell of an ardent desire for rebirth and reconstruction following the 2nd World War, a stubborn resistance to conformism and the will to create an Italian identity. A story which is first and foremost a mix of values: love for the family, strong sensitivity and the support of friends. Fragments of humanity that transform the biography of an entrepreneur into a romance to be read from cover to cover.
